Jersey City Department of Public Works to Begin Pothole Repairs

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy and the Jersey City Department of Public Works announce beginning tomorrow, Tuesday, February 8, 2011 between the hours of 7 a.m. and 2 p.m., one DPW crew will be re-assigned from snow removal to do cold patches (winter fills of potholes).

They will start with the emergency calls they have already received and then work each day in a different area of the city to address other pothole complaints.

As the snow removal progresses, probably by later in the week, Rodney Hadley, Director of DPW hopes to be able to dispatch a second crew for pothole repairs.

All media inquiries should be directed to Jennifer Morrill, Press Secretary to Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy at 201-547-4836 or 201-369-0699.///
