Area Artists Create ‘Studio for a Day’ at City Hall Plaza

DJ & musicians to perform as artists create paintings, sculptures & other impromptu works

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy will host a Day for Art at City Hall, as artists from the area will congregate at City Hall Plaza to create paintings, sculptures and other impromptu works from 1 to 8 p.m. on Saturday, July 28, 2007 at City Hall, 280 Grove Street.

The event, which is organized by Division of Cultural Affairs Art Curator Greg Brickey and local artist Lex Leonard, makes the public area of City Hall Plaza a place where artists can set up their easels and work together.

“This is the perfect example of the City providing an arena for artists to not only create their work, but to exhibit it as well,” Mayor Healy said. “I am pleased that we are inviting artists and the public to City Hall as a forum to expand the arts in Jersey City.”

While the artists create their work, a local DJ will spin records. Singer/songwriters will also perform throughout the day.
